

President and Chief Executive Officer of LSU Health Foundation New Orleans

LSU Health Foundation New Orleans is dedicated to supporting LSU Health New Orleans and the achievement of its fourfold mission of patient care, education, research, and community outreach. The LSU Health Foundation, in strong collaboration with LSU Health New Orleans, seeks a visionary, experienced leader to steer the Foundation in its efforts to increase community support and engagement.

Since the LSU Medical School opened its doors in 1931, LSU Health New Orleans has been committed to educational excellence and providing high quality patient care. Today, LSU Health New Orleans is Louisiana's largest academic health sciences center with six schools and eleven centers of excellence training over 70% of the state's health care professionals, caring for over 1 million patients visits each year, conducting groundbreaking biosciences research, and serving the community.

The future is bright at LSU Health New Orleans as it continues to practice the art of healing in the community and to educate the next generation of health care providers while conducting cutting-edge biosciences research to diagnose, treat, and cure some of life's most chronic and burdensome diseases.

The LSU Health Foundation New Orleans was founded in 1988 to support the mission of LSU Health New Orleans. The Foundation assets have grown from $2 million in 1988 to over $100 million today. The Foundation's work directly improves the lives of LSU Health New Orleans' students, professors, patients, and families.

The new LSU Health Foundation New Orleans President and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) will oversee the management and fundraising endeavors of the Foundation, providing leadership and strategic direction to the staff and Board of Directors while working closely with LSU Health New Orleans leadership. With a track record of fundraising capability and strong financial acumen, the next Foundation President and CEO will operate with the highest integrity and establish a visionary direction for the Foundation to fully achieve its mission.
